Acceptable Use Policy

1. Purpose
This Acceptable Use Policy ("AUP") is designed to protect our customers, the integrity of our network, and the internet community from inappropriate or illegal activities. By using our hosting services, you agree to comply with this AUP.

2. Prohibited Activities
You are strictly prohibited from using our services for any of the following activities:

- Illegal Activities: Engaging in or promoting activities that violate local, national, or international laws, including but not limited to fraud, phishing, or identity theft.
- Malware Distribution: Hosting, sharing, or distributing viruses, worms, Trojans, or other malicious software.
- Copyright Violation: Hosting content that infringes on intellectual property rights, including unauthorized distribution of copyrighted material.
- Hate Speech or Harassment: Hosting content that promotes violence, discrimination, or harassment against any individual or group.
- Spam: Sending unsolicited bulk emails, chain letters, or other spam-like activities.
- Network Abuse: Activities that disrupt or interfere with the normal functioning of our network or services, including DDoS attacks.
- Unauthorized Access: Attempting to access or interfere with systems, accounts, or data without authorization.

3. Resource Usage
Customers must use server resources responsibly and in accordance with their hosting plan's limits. Activities that cause excessive load on our servers or degrade the performance for other users are not permitted. Examples include:

- Mining cryptocurrencies.
- Running resource-intensive scripts without prior approval.
- Hosting public file-sharing or download services.

4. Responsibility for Content
You are responsible for all content stored or transmitted through your account. We do not monitor or review the content you host, but we reserve the right to investigate and remove content that violates this AUP.

5. Consequences of Violations
If you violate this AUP, we may take one or more of the following actions:

- Issue a warning.
- Restrict or suspend your account temporarily.
- Terminate your account without prior notice.
- Report illegal activities to the relevant authorities.

6. Reporting Violations
If you suspect that someone is violating this AUP, please report it to us by emailing support@brawn.cloud. Provide as much detail as possible to help us investigate the issue.

7. Changes to This Policy
We reserve the right to update this Acceptable Use Policy at any time. Changes will be effective upon posting on our website, and it is your responsibility to review this policy regularly.
